FINE Strategic plan in 5 orientations

- Promote excellence in nursing sciences education by properly preparing educators and giving them access to continuous professional development.
- Promote the added value and image of nursing studies in Europe.
- Defend the interests of students and educators in nursing sciences, at every level.
- Influence the elaboration of policies related to nursing studies at a European level.
- Set up effective leadership and management within the federation to maximize its chances of success.

FINE Plan stratégique en 5 orientations

- Favoriser l'excellence dans l'enseignement des sciences infirmières en préparant adéquatement les enseignants et en leur donnant accès au développement professionnel continu.
- Promouvoir la valeur ajoutée et l'image de la formation et de l'enseignement des soins infirmiers en Europe.
- Défendre les intérêts des étudiants et enseignants en sciences infirmières à tous les niveaux.
- Influencer l'élaboration des politiques dans le domaine de la formation des infirmiers au niveau européen.
- Mettre en place un leadership et une gestion efficaces au sein de la fédération pour maximiser ses chances d'atteindre ses objectifs.

2023,
a year of great difficulty for health systems,
a year of new challenges for nursing education in Europe

Nursing education has had to continue to adapt in a complex health care context: supporting teaching teams in the development of distance learning, accompanying students on placements, developing leadership skills to evolve the profession and its resilience.

In this context, FINE has implemented activities in line with the objectives of its strategic plan.

2023, année de grande difficulté pour les systèmes de santé, année de nouveaux défis pour la formation infirmière en Europe

La formation infirmière a du continuer à s'adapter dans un contexte de soins de santé complexe : soutien des équipes pédagogiques dans le développement de l'enseignement à distance, accompagnement des étudiants en stages, développement de compétences de leadership pour faire évoluer la profession, et sa résilience.

Dans ce contexte FINE a mis en œuvre des activités en lien avec les objectifs de son plan stratégique.

FINE participation in research project

- FINE participated as an associate partner on the [http://TOVID Erasmus + project]TOVID Erasmus + project which ran for two years and ended in 2023. It was led by the University of Malta and was awarded a grant of over 200K euro. The other members of the project were universities from Cyprus, Finland and Slovenia and other private educational entities in the respective countries.
- The outputs of this project are useful teaching and learning resources which all FINE members are being gradually informed about.
- Access to these resources is free. Two ebooks for educators can be reached through Resources (tovid.eu) and a set of videos for online educators may be reached through Resources (tovid.eu)
